... When the light rested upon me I saw two Personages, whose brightness and glory defy all description, standing above me in the air. One of them spake unto me, calling me by name and said, pointing to the other — This is My Beloved Son. Hear Him!

"Let Us Oft Speak Kind Words"

Let us oft speak kind words to each other
At home or where 'er we may be;
Like the warblings of birds on the heather
The tones will be welcome and free.
They'll gladden the heart that's repining
Give courage and hope from above
And where the dark clouds hide the shining
Let in the bright sunlight of love.

Like the sunbeams of morn on the mountains
The soul they awake to good cheer
Like the murmur of cool pleasant fountains
They fall in sweet cadences near.
Let's oft, then, in kindly toned voices,
Our mutual friendship renew
Till heart meets with heart and rejoices
In friendship that ever is true.

O the kind words we give shall in memory live
And sunshine forever impart
Let us oft speak kind words to each other
Kind words are sweet tones of the heart.

THE PROVO TEMPLE is located west of Rock Canyon, northeast of Provo, Utah and near the Brigham Young University. This Temple and the Ogden Temple are similar in construction. Both Temples are designed for maximum efficiency. The Provo Temple, like the Ogden Temple has a basement and three floors above ground, with the ground floor square stylobate providing a base for the two upper floors. Emil B. Fetzer is the architect for both the Provo and Ogden Temples. The Provo Temple was dedicated February 9, 1972, by President Joseph Fielding Smith.

Ancient American Prophet Buries Religious Record

Moroni, a Prophet of the Lord who lived centuries ago in the Western Hemisphere, buries a record, the religious history of his people, thus insuring its preservation for future generations. This sacred history has been brought forth in these latter days as the Book of Mormon.

Q U E S T

Though I am young, I know the way;
The road lies marked before me.
I can progress, rejoice, and grow.
The source is given to me to know
That sweet unchanging promise.

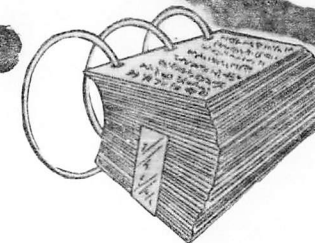

For I stand free to weave my life
From my heart's lovely patterns.
I have a vague, soft memory
Of what I was yet cannot see,
That helps me not to falter.

Each step I take will leave it's mark,
For each step leads me somewhere,
And though the end is dim to sight,
The steps I take, if true and right,
Will bring me exaltation.

I know I do not walk alone;
My footsteps are protected
By One who cares to see my life
Shine forth in beauty, and love, and light,
Exalted and perfected.

Often I stand alone,
Forsake the crowds around me,
See strength to live the truths I find,
Clothe modestly my flesh and mind,
My spirit humble and refine,
I can be pure because I see
The joy that waits eternally.

This Is MY Quest.
